Fostering Innovators & Inspiring Ingenuity
Prepare for Your Future

Funding a degree in higher education can be quite a daunting task so we hope to provide you with some tips, tools, and resources to ease your worries and to help you prepare for financial success. In this informational, we have broken down funding options into categories to help you find exactly what you need:

1. Funding to Study in Germany
2. Funding for International Students
3. Financial Support for Veterans

Alongside providing a list of scholarships and funding opportunities, we want to challenge you to use this resource as a springboard for finding compensation for your education. Contact us if you need help, have any questions, or would like more information!
Send an email to student-services@touroberlin.de General Funding to Study in Germany

Undergraduate opportunities

1. Friedrich Ebert Stiftung Scholarship
   a. This scholarship seeks to promote democracy through academic financial assistance, available for foreign applicants
   b. Undergrads will receive €830 per month

2. Deutschland Stipendium National Scholarship
   a. You may receive 150€ from private business or foundation plus 150€ from federal government if chosen

3. Deutsche Gesellschaft internationaler Studierender (DeGiS)
   a. You are provided with 6 months of €200 financial aid
   b. Take part in a mentorship program to develop personal and professional skills

TIPS: Before you get started...
Make sure you read through this thoroughly with a positive outlook. It can take time finding and applying for the scholarship or grant that catches your eye. It is easy to get discouraged, or think you may not be the “right” candidate, but remember it IS worth it to apply; there is simply no need to doubt yourself. And remember, the funding availabilities we list here are only just a few. Keep searching! You WILL find something.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT FOR MA/MBA

Graduate opportunities

1. Heinrich Böll Foundation Scholarships*
   *Foreign applicants only
2. Friedrich Ebert Stiftung Scholarship
   a. Receive €850 per month, plus €276 family stipend if scholars have children

3. Deutsche Akademischer Austauschdienst (DAAD)
   a. Great for those who would like to carry out a project in our MA Holocaust Communication & Tolerance program

4. Foreign Language and Area Studies*
   *US Citizens only
Funding for International Students

Undergraduate AND Graduate Opportunities

1. Pitch Your Idea Scholarship
   a. Open to anyone, particularly students interested in opening a business
   b. 15 administered scholarships worth up to 2000 USD

2. Education Scholarship
   a. Study a masters in Europe
   b. Receive €5000

3. Fulbright Research Grants
   a. If you plan on completing research whilst you study this may be a fantastic option for you!
   b. Mostly available for graduate students, but possible for undergraduates in their final years, and those who would like to teach
      i. German-American Fulbright program
      ii. German Fulbright program

More Online Resources!

Individual Scholarships:
https://www.scholarshipportal.com

International Scholarships:
https://www.internationalscholarships.com

Both of these resources offer hundreds of various scholarships for undergraduates and graduates. You can tailor your search to fit your needs!

Reminder

We hope you are seeing some things that may interest you! Remember, these are only just a FEW of the MANY that are available!

Be sure to look at the extra online resources we provided above. Remember, stay positive, make time to search and apply, and ask for help if you need it.
Financial Support for Veterans

Veterans from the US and Abroad

Transitioning from the military to civilian life can be tough, and figuring out what you want to study and how to get started might feel like an exhausting process. So, this is where we hope to help! Listed below are a few resources that are available for you to check out.

1. GI Bill
   a. Discover how and in what ways you can apply the GI Bill to you or your family member’s education

2. FAFSA
   a. Be sure to fill out the FAFSA to receive a number of grants and loans if necessary

3. Army Grant for Israeli Veterans
   a. After leaving the army, take the opportunity to use this funding as a means to pay for your education!

Here are some more articles on how to finance your education *for US veterans:

- Beyond the GI Bill
- 5 Scholarships for Military Veterans and Families
- A List of All Possible Scholarships for Vets and their Families
- Pat Tillman Foundation Scholarship

*American Veterans only

FINAL NOTE

It is our goal to continually provide up-to-date information on funding opportunities for our students. We want to make sure you are able to truly enjoy every minute of your education by taking the stress of financial educational stability out of the question. Thus, we cannot do it on our own. So, we humbly ask you to contact us if you have knowledge about scholarships we might be missing. We will gladly add them to the list! As of now, we have a strong focus on US and Israeli scholarships, but would love to hear from you should you know of more international funding.